Tremont TASS (Europe) Limited has hired Catherine Evans as Associate Director.

Before joining Tremont, Ms Evans was Associate Director at London-based Alpha Investment Management where she focused on new business development and marketing fund of funds to institutions.

While at Alpha, she worked with John Hock, who is currently Tremont Advisers, Inc.'s Head of Global Sales. Ms Evans said: "It is gratifying to be back on a marketing team with John, who is a very seasoned professional with deep knowledge of institutional investors as well as alternative investments."

In her new position, Ms Evans reports to Rupert Allan, Managing Director for Tremont TASS. She will focus on marketing Tremont's investment management of hedge fund portfolios to European institutional investors including pension funds, endowments, consultants and financial institutions.

Ms Evans said: "We have tremendous opportunities in the months ahead to educate and attract many institutions to alternative investing. Tremont differentiates itself from its competitors by its macro-economic research, contrarian approach and its risk management program making it an excellent choice for institutions looking for an alternative investment allocation."

From 1998 to 2001, Ms Evans was a Senior Marketing Manager with Pictet Asset Management in London where she specialised in new business development and marketing of various specialist investment products to European investors. From 1993 to 1998, she was a Vice President at Lynch, Jones and Ryan in London where she marketed the firm's brokerage services.

Background Note: Tremont TASS (Europe) Limited is the UK-based subsidiary of Tremont Advisers, Inc. Tremont Advisers, an affiliate of OppenheimerFunds, Inc. is a diversified holding company that, through its subsidiaries, conducts a multi-faceted global alternative investment business consisting of investment management, advisory services, database sales and information, and proprietary investment product development and distribution.

Through Tremont TASS (Europe) Limited, the firm provides data on the performance of more than 2,500 alternative investment managers and funds and promotes Tremont's investment products and services in Europe and the United Kingdom.

Tremont advises on more than US$8 billion in alternative investments, including more than US$2 billion in assets invested in its proprietary products. Tremont is headquartered in Rye, New York, and has offices in Toronto, Bermuda and London.
